

Gaudium mundi, for the Feast of the Assumption
(St. Peter Damian, 11c., expository translation)

H. 1

T he joy of the world, the new star of heaven, Be-getting the sun, bearer of the pa-Gau di um mun di, no va stel la cæ li, pró cre ans so lem, pá ri ens pa rén rent, A hand give fallen ones, bear aid to wa-verers, O Virgin Mary. Made by God you tem, da ma num lap sis, fer o pem ca dú cis, vir go Ma rí a. Te De o fac are, be it clear, the ladder: Holding the summit, the High seeks the low- est; For us to re-tam li quet es se sca lam qua te nens sum ma pe tit Al tus i ma; nos ad ex cël turn up to lof-ty heaven, O grant the high peaks. You, seen by the choir of the blessed an-si re me á re cæ li cúl mi na do na. Te be a tó rum cho rus an ge ló gels, You, by prophets' and apostles' compa- ny, To themselves preferred, are set a- part a-lone rum, te pro phe tá rum et a pos to ló rum or do pre lá tam si bi cer nit u nam

Be- side the Godhead. Praise to the lof-ty Thrée peren-ni-al- ly, Who to you, Virgin bestows post De i tá tem. Laus sit ex cël sæ Trí a di perén nis, quæ ti bi, Vir go, trí bu a garland crown, Places you as queen and proví-dent to us Makes you our mother. A- men. it co ró nam, at que re gí nam sta tu it que no stram pró vi da ma trem.

translation copyright ©2021 John R. Rose under CC BY-SA 4.0

<<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-sa/4.0/>>

Latin source: Solesmes Liber Hymnarius, 1983 (2019), p. 414

<<https://gregobase.selapa.net/chant.php?id=10573>>

Acknowledgements: Holly Coty, Sing the Hours