

Veniens Mater Inclita
(literal English translation to match Gregorian Latin melody)

H.2

A R- rí- ving mo ther much ac claimed, Bear ing the Ho- ly Spí- rit's gift: Come and see ús as yóu saw John, With in this flesh where wé re side. 2. Pro ceed, and bring the lít- tle one, That all the world might yét believe, And so your ti- tle of práise may be Ever ywhere known and líf- ted high. 3. Give sá- lu- tation tó the Church, So, at the hear ing óf your voice, She may rise up to hígh de light, As Chríst's advent she nów per ceives. 4. Ma ry, as you lift úp your eyes, See the belív ing ná tions here: They seek for you with píous minds, You will bring forth to áll their aid. 5.
O cér- tain hope of trúe de light, Our ha- ven from all mí- ser- y, Join us to hea ven's nó ble court, Adórned in rai ment gló- rious. 6. Vir gín, with you we mág ni- fy From our own soul the Sóver eign Lord, He, who by praise en- nó bles you, With praise of man and héa ven's host. A- men.